Taylor began his banking career in 2012 upon graduating from college. He began as a management trainee with Liberty National Bank and has worked within several departments including operations, credit analysis, and loan review. In 2017, he was promoted to Assistant Vice President and began focusing his efforts toward bank and regulatory accounting, investments, and interest rate risk management. Upon his success in these roles, he was promoted in 2018 to Vice President where he served as a lender and further enhanced his skills. In 2019, Taylor was promoted to Chief Operating Officer after spending the previous seven years obtaining a diverse background in bank operations. Today, Taylor currently performs the role of Chief Banking Officer where he is responsible for strategic planning and banking operations. As the CBO, he oversees several areas of the bank that include; Operations, Internal Audit, Marketing, Retail Sales, Human Resources, and Treasury Management. Taylor prides himself on driving a customer-focused culture with strong collaboration and cross-departmental relationships. This includes leading efficient, sustainable, and scalable business processes that enhance and continue to elevate the bank's organizational culture.

Taylor believes in being of service to the local community and state. He currently serves as Vice President for the Elgin School Education Foundation and Leadership Lawton Ft. Sill. In August 2020, Governor Kevin Stitt appointed Taylor to the Oklahoma Accountancy Board. He also served on the Lawton Public School Foundation Board from 2017-2022.

Taylor graduated from Oklahoma State University with a Bachelor Degree in Business Management. In 2018, he was selected for the Oklahoma Bankers Association Emerging Leaders Academy, from which he graduated. He was honored for being selected as a member of the ICBA's 40 Under 40: Emerging Community Bank Leaders in 2021. Taylor attended the ABA Commercial Lending School and is a SWGSB Certified Community Bank Director. Furthering his commitment to his trade, in 2022, he graduated from the Sales and Marketing School at the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin. In 2023, he graduated from the Executive Development Institute at the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado.

Most importantly, Taylor is a proud husband and the father of two sons and one daughter.
