Holly began her career in banking in 2002 and moved to Chickasha Bank & Trust in 2006 which was then acquired by Liberty National Bank in 2014. Over the years she has worked as a Teller, Teller Supervisor, Customer Service Representative and is currently Branch Operations Manager at the Apache branch.

Holly cherishes the relationships with customers and fellow co-workers that she has established over the years. She believes that all customers deserve her full attention and goes above and beyond to help them with all their financial needs.

Having grown up in the Apache community she tries to give back by volunteering at the Apache Rattlesnake Festival, The Christmas Angel Tree, Apache Band Boosters and working at the Apache Warrior football concession stand. Holly and her children attend Apache First Pentecostal Holiness Church where she serves on the Praise and Worship Team, Wednesday Night Meals and Sunday School Secretary.
